EMPLOYMENT SERVICE REVIEW

{October through December}

Begun September 1934 this publication was originally called the EMPLOYMENT SERVICE NEWS. In January 1940 it became the EMPLOYMENT SECURITY REVIEW. It was re-entitled the MANPOWER REVIEW while the United States Employment Service was under the War Manpower Commission. With the transfer of the USES to the U. S. Department of Labor in September 1945, the name of the publication, effective with the October issue, became the EMPLOYMENT SERVICE REVIEW.

Explanatory Introduction

A 5-YEAR cumulative index to the MANPOWER REVIEW and its predecessor the EMPLOYMENT SECURITY REVIEW, for the years 1940 through 1944 was published early in 1945.

This index for the year 1945 follows the topical pattern of the cumulative index. Since titles of articles in the REVIEW do not always parallel exact technical terminology of the Employment Service, cross references have been inserted in alphabetical sequence to facilitate access to subjects by formal and less formal designations.

As in the previous index, we have generally avoided such broad headings as "Recruitment" or "Placement" since one or the other is inherent in all employment service activities. Instead, employment service activities have been listed as they relate to specific groups such as "veterans," "handicapped," "minority groups," "women," or to specific programs such as "labor market analysis," "training," "counseling," "employer relations," and the like.

Items appearing in AT PRESS TIME are italicized.

The following is a guide to abbreviations used in the Index:

AFL	American Federation of Labor
ASF	Army Service Forces
AT	Apprentice Training
CED	Committee on Economic Development
CIO	Congress of Industrial Organizations
NEPHW	National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week
OWMR	Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion
POW	Prisoner of War
TWI	Training Within Industry
UC	Unemployment Compensation
USES	United States Employment Service
USAFI	United States Armed Forces Institute
VE-day	Victory in Europe Day
VER	Veterans Employment Representative
WLB	War Labor Board
WMC	War Manpower Commission
WPB	War Production Board
